

WNTC's Battle of the Dorms Coming Soon

Who wants to party-- BAD!!

WNTC's Battle of the Dorms--There's one and only one prize, 6 kegs of beer and the WNTC Sound System for the night.

On Saturday nights April 19 and 26 from 11 pm-3 am Peter King and Greg Rietz will be on the air live and we will be asking different dorms to call us and try answering some trivia questions. For every correct answer that dorm will collect points.
The dorm with the most points at the end of 2 weeks will win the Grand Prize. Points can only be earned from 11 pm-3 am on April 19 and April 26.

Rules:

(1) The winning dorm prize will be given to the Resident Director and he/she will determine what day the party will be held.

(2) The management of WNTC has the final say as to correct answers of questions and any other matters pertaining to this contest.

(3) The winning dormitory assumes all financial responsibility for deposits on kegs, damage to dorm and equipment as well as reserving cafeterias, etc.

(4) Contest eligibility-A person is considered a member of the dorm in which he lives and is only allowed to play for one dorm. Each fraternity and sorority will be considered as a dorm. Woodstock Village as well as Riverside and Main Street Apartments will be considered as individual dorms. Incoming calls will be verified. Many calls will be aired live--profanity and insulting remarks to any party will eliminate that dorm from competition for the remainder of the contest day.

(5) We apologize for any discrimination shown to students living in private apartments.
Any group of individuals wishing to participate in this contest may be recognized as a "dormitory" by sending a list of names and a "dorm" name in writing to:

WNTC Battle of the Dorms
c/o Greg Rietz or Peter King CCT, Potsdam, NY 13676

and must be postmarked by Thursday April 17, 1980.
Remember the "Ghetto Rats"-2 years ago at Ice Carnival??

That's a $250.00 prize for the winner.

Now here's your chance to find out who is the smartest dorm on campus. Be a part of it beginning Saturday, April 19 at 11 pm with Peter King and Greg Rietz on WNTC's Battle of the Dorms.

"The Wall" Stands Strong

by Joseph A. Piccoli, WNTC AM & FM

The title of this article tells what artist is occupying the top slots on both WNTC surveys. Entering the fifth week as the top single in Potsdam, "Another Brick In The Wall" is by far Pink Floyd's biggest hit and one of the biggest hits of the year so far.

Action is the word in the top ten this week. Jumping to number three after debuting last week at nine is Blondie, with "Call Me," the theme from the movie "American Gigolo." The song is rivalling their debut smash of last spring, "Heart Of Glass," as their biggest hit. Moving from seven to four is Christopher Cross with "Ride Like the Wind." Bob Seger moves up to number five with the mysterious "Fire Lake" and Billy Joel jumps into the top ten at number eight with "You May Be Right," from his "Glass Houses" album.

Two sure candidates for the top ten next week are "Lost In Love," a smooth ballad from a new group called Air Supply, and Dr. Hook's "Sexy Eyes." A top ten candidate in two or three weeks is "Set Me Free," the debut hit by Utopia, which is currently holding at nineteen, after moving up nine. At number twenty-one, also moving up nine is Journey, with "Any Way You Want It." Almost unknown until their "Infinity" album was released in 1978, they are on the verge of superstardom. Moving up fifteen to twenty-five are Peaches and Herb with "I Pledge My Love." A traditional ballad, the song is a 180 degree change from their debut hit, "Shake Your Groove Thing." And debuting at twenty-six is Jimmy Ruffin, with "Hold On To My Love," his first hit since 1969.

Moving up seven to twenty-eight is Paul Davis, with "Do Right." His last hit was "Seet Life" in 1978. Debuting at thirty one is Boz Scaggs, with "Breakdown Dead Ahead," his first single hit since "Lido Shuffle" in 1977. The new song comes from his new album, "Middle Man," which comes two and a half years after his last, "Down Two Then Left." At number thirty-two this week is a new group from England, the Pretenders, with "Brass In Pocket." The song has been described as a "mellow new wave." Debuting at thirty-four is Dan Fogelberg's followup to "Longer," entitled "Heart Hotels." The new song is a little more rock oriented than the ultra smooth "Longer." The chart is rounded out by two more debut songs. At number thirty-eight is the Knack, with "Can't Put A Price On Love," which sounds similiar to the Rolling Stones' "Beast Of Burden." And at number thirty-nine are Andy Gibb and Olivia Newton John with "I Can't Help It."

WNTC Top Ten

Playlist for the Week of April 14, 1980

Singles

1. Another Brick In The Wall
2. Working My Way Back To You
3. Call Me
4. Ride Like The Wind
5. Fire Lake
6. Too Hot
7. How Do I Make You
8. You May Be Right
9. I Can't Tell You Why
10. Crazy Little Thing Called Love

^bums

1. The Wall
2. Against The Wind
3. Mad Love
4. Glass Houses
5. Damn The Torpedoes
6. Departure
7. Bad Luck Streak In Dancing School
8. Middle Man
9. But The Little Girls Understand
10. Love Stinks

Artists

- Pink Floyd
Blondie
Christopher Cross
Bob Seger
Kool And The Gang
Linda Ronstadt
Billy Joel
Eagles
Queen

- Pink Floyd
Bob Seger
Linda Ronstadt
Billy Joel
Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers
Journey
Warren Zevon
Boz Scaggs
The Knack
J. Geils Band